JANUARY

FORGOTTEN ARTS

● FIBER ARTS GROUP/DEMONSTRATIONS

Tuesday, January 8 • 9:30 a.m.–12 p.m.

Fiber artists (bring your project to work on) and/or interested onlookers are welcome to join our Happy Weavers & Friends group to share in the historic art of weaving, spinning, sewing, quilting and more! Led by Barbara Lord, Volunteer Educator, this group meets every other Tuesday, year round. FREE (does not include access to the Museum).

YOUNG DAIRY FARMERS

● HILLSDALE 4-H DAIRY CLUB

Thursday, January 10 • 7–9 p.m.

The Carroll County Hillsdale 4-H Dairy Club focuses on learning about various dairy breeds of cattle, goats and sheep, while participating in local and state 4-H activities. The club meets monthly, with additional activities and meetings held at the leader's discretion. The club is open to residents of Carroll County, ages 8–18 (as of January 1 of current year). Ownership of a project animal is not required. FREE. Contact Farm Manager Lindsey McAllister for information: lmcallister@remickmuseum.org.

REMICK HOMESCHOOL CLASS

● OLD-WORLD FOODS MEET NEW-WORLD FOODS

Monday, January 14 • 10 a.m.–12 p.m.

Do you know where apples and corn come from? Learn where many of our foods originated through a brief PowerPoint presentation, an interactive food game, and discussion time. There will be a sample of Old World and New World foods to try. Overview: Remick offers season-based classes for homeschool students, generally the third Monday of each month, September–June. Discovery through the five senses, hands-on activities and discussion encourage deeper understanding of each topic. $6/participant, ages 6 and above. Space is limited. Registration closes Monday, January 7/when filled; no walk-ins, please.

HISTORIC FOODWAYS

● HEARTHSIDE DINNER

Saturday, January 19 • 4–8 p.m.

This evening begins with costumed Museum Interpreters guiding guests “back in time” to learn about 19th-century kitchens and food preparation, seasonal farming and foods, and historic cooking recipes and tools. Guests then assist in preparing, seasoning, cooking, roasting and baking foods using traditional means and tools—all in the process of creating an authentic, seasonal farmstead meal. Finally, sit down together to enjoy the fruits of your combined labor. A BYOB-friendly event. $65/person, ages 16 and above. Reservations close Friday, January 11/when filled.

FOR LITTLE ONES

● NEW DAY & TIME! SMALL FARMERS CLUB

LEARN ABOUT: HORSES AT WORK

Saturday, January 26 • 11 a.m.–12 p.m.

Before tractors and trucks, horses did lots of work on the farm. Learn about one strong and brave horse who helped his family with the ice harvest. After making a horse cart, visit Sadie, our miniature horse. Sadie's job is as a companion to some of our farm animals so they do not get lonely. Everyone has a job to do, even if they are little! Overview: Our “Old Doc Remick Had a Farm” theme enables children to experience seasonal rhythms and chores on the farmstead. Through age-appropriate activities—including crafts, games, stories and animal meet and greets—participants enjoy such season-based activities as planting, milking, harvesting, and wintertime indoor activities. $6/child, ages 2–6. Space is limited. Pre-register by Friday, January 25; no walk-ins, please.

PLANTS OF FIELD & FOREST

● BUILDING YOUR HERBAL MEDICINE CHEST

Saturday, January 26 • 10 a.m.–1 p.m.

Snow date: Sunday, January 27 • 1–4 p.m.

Want to have safe, natural medicines in your home but don't know where to start? Join us as we discuss the herbal remedies most effective for distresses head to toe. There will be plenty to taste and apply; you will receive a guide booklet and a remedy to start you off! $35/$45 non-members; ages 16 (with parent) and above. This is an indoor class. Many remedies can be purchased at the museum store. Registration closes Tuesday, January 22/when filled.

FAMILY-FRIENDLY RACE

● NEW! 5K SNOWSHOE STAMPEDE

Saturday, February 16 • 9 a.m.

Severe weather date: Sunday, February 17

Join us for our first snowshoe race! Held in partnership with Rockhopper Races LLC, the 5K race trail winds through the Remick property and pastures, making for a truly unique and fun experience. The race is open to race pros, first-timers, and participants of all ages; racers must provide their own snowshoes. There will be prizes for winners in each of three divisions for Men and Women. Refreshments will be available for racers following the race. In the event that there is no snow on the trail the day of the race, this will be a trail race requiring the use of traction devices, if the conditions require. Pre-registration forms are available on our website; same-day registration begins at 8 a.m. at the Remick Education Center. Call 603-323-7591 for inquiries. Entrance fee: $25 for pre-registered racers, $30 for same-day registration racers; entrance fee includes admission to Ice Harvest & Winter Carnival (11 a.m.–3 p.m. the same day), up to a $10 value.

ANNUAL SEASONAL EVENT

● ICE HARVEST & WINTER CARNIVAL

Saturday, February 16 • 11 a.m.–3 p.m.

Severe weather date: Sunday, February 17

Take part in a historic New England tradition—ice harvesting! Celebrate winter with fun outdoor activities and try your hand at harvesting ice on the farm pond. Learn from the past as you cut, float and lift harvested ice—see it stored in our ice house. Visit farm animals in their winter coats and surroundings, enjoy winter games and crafts and warm up with foods made from Remick-grown and -raised items. See our website for up-to-date activities; see same-day event info above: 5K Snowshoe Stampedo. $10/person, ages 11 & above; $5/child ages 5–10; 4 & under, FREE. Members receive $2 off admission.
